

2010 – 2011 Accomplishments

Thanks to the generosity of our donors, who make both restricted and unrestricted donations to support our students, CCEF was able to fund $228,312 for these projects during the 2010 – 2011 School Year.

For For For For For For

ARTS - $66,683 Total

District Wide: 2 nd & 3 rd grade Music Program * Fineshriber Family Foundation	$21,983
District Wide: Front & Center Theatre Collaborative * The Carol and James Collins Foundation	$15,000
District Wide: Front & Center Theatre Collaborative * Playa Vista	$5,000
District Wide: Front & Center Theatre Collaborative	$5,000
Academy of Visual and Performing Arts * Playa Vista	$5,000
Culver Park High School: HeArt Project * Walter N. Marks	$5,000
Culver City Middle School and High School: ACME Animation CCEF in partnership with Sony Pictures Entertainment	$4,000
District Wide: 2 nd Grade Music Program * Target	$2,000
Farragut Elementary School: 5 th Grade Music Center Workshops	$1,500
El Marino Elementary School: Music Project 3 rd – 5 th Grades	$1,100
Culver City High School: Cootie Shots /Anti-Bullying	$600
Culver City High School: Architecture Project * HOK	$500

LITERACY - $11,110 Total

District-Wide: Library Books * Rita Zide's Roll 'n Rye	$5,000
Culver City High School: Library Books * Sandy Wolff Burton	$2,098
La Ballona Elementary: Partners in Print	$1,912
El Marino Language School: * Surplus Store	$1,200
Culver City Middle School: Let's Make a Scene	$900

MATHEMATICS - $41,404 Total

District Wide: Elementary Math Workshops * Syantec Corporation	$20,000
Culver City High School: Technology to benefit the math classroom * Anonymous	$19,404
Linwood E. Howe Elementary: Math Program * Jason & Lois Frand	$2,000

SCIENCE – $10,217 Total

Culver City Middle School: Life Science Microscopes * UCLA and Tarn Endowment	$6,264
District Elementary Schools: Wet Hands and Sandy Feet	$2,750
Linwood Howe: Trout Field Trip	$1,203

TECHNOLOGY - $ 57,298 Total

Elementary School: Focus on Technology * Culver City Rotary Club, Mark and Mary Stevens, and CCEF	$28,000
Culver City High School: Enhancing Students through Library Resources/Computers	$7,214
El Rincon Elementary School: Brighter Kids with Brightlink	$4,200
Linwood E. Howe Elementary School: Teach and Reach Through Technology	$4,100
Culver City Middle School: Computer Lab	$2,744
Culver City Middle School: Computer Lab: * The Carol and James Collins Foundation	$2,500
Culver City High School: Technology in the Chemistry and Math Classroom	$2,438
El Rincon Elementary School: Innovative Learning through Technology	$2,050
Linwood E. Howe Elementary School: Teaching with Technology	$2,362
Culver City High School: Technology in the Chemistry and Math Classroom: * Exchange Club of Culver City	$1,000
Culver City Middle School: CUE Technology Conference	$690

MULTI-DISCIPLINARY - $41,600 Total

Youth Health Center: * Kaiser Permanente	$9,000
Elementary Schools: Field Trip Fund * Pardee Properties	$9,000
Elementary Schools: Garden Focus	$8,000
CCPD Juvenile Diversion Program * Foundation for Global Sports Development	$6,500
Unrestricted Donation for Grants: * Sony Pictures Entertainment	$5,000
Culver City Adult School: Museum of Tolerance	$1,500
Culver City Middle School: Surplus Store	$1,200
Teacher of the Year Grant * Sony Pictures Entertainment	$1,000
Culver City High School: Going to the Getty	$400

* Funds directed to a specific program or purpose by donor, subject to CCEF administrative fee